180 Years of Passion for Pattern

This year, we celebrate our 180th anniversary with tea towels featuring new designs by Lotta Köhlhorn alongside selected gems from our archives. This autumn, we expand last year's launch of Marianne Westman's beloved patterns Körsbärsträdgården and Belle Amie with new colourways in warm tones, perfect for both autumn and the festive season. We also introduce the beautiful medallion design Botanic Garden by Lilo Hörstadius in a rich new autumn palette.

Founded in 1846 in Gothenburg, Almedahls is one of Sweden's oldest textile companies. In the early 1900s, the company was a major producer of linen, and during the design era of the 1950s became an important name in textile printing through collaborations with designers such as Astrid Sampe and the NK Textile Chamber. Today, the archive holds around 10,000 patterns.

Lotta Köhlhorn ♥ Almedahls

To celebrate Almedahls' 180th anniversary, Lotta Köhlhorn has created a festive tea towel featuring a traditional Swedish croquembouche surrounded by fireworks and lucky clovers. Named Hurra, Hurra, Hurra!, it is designed for all of life's celebrations — birthdays, graduations, weddings and anniversaries. In Lotta's colourful interpretation, the elegant confection is decorated with candles and beautiful ruby-red cherries.

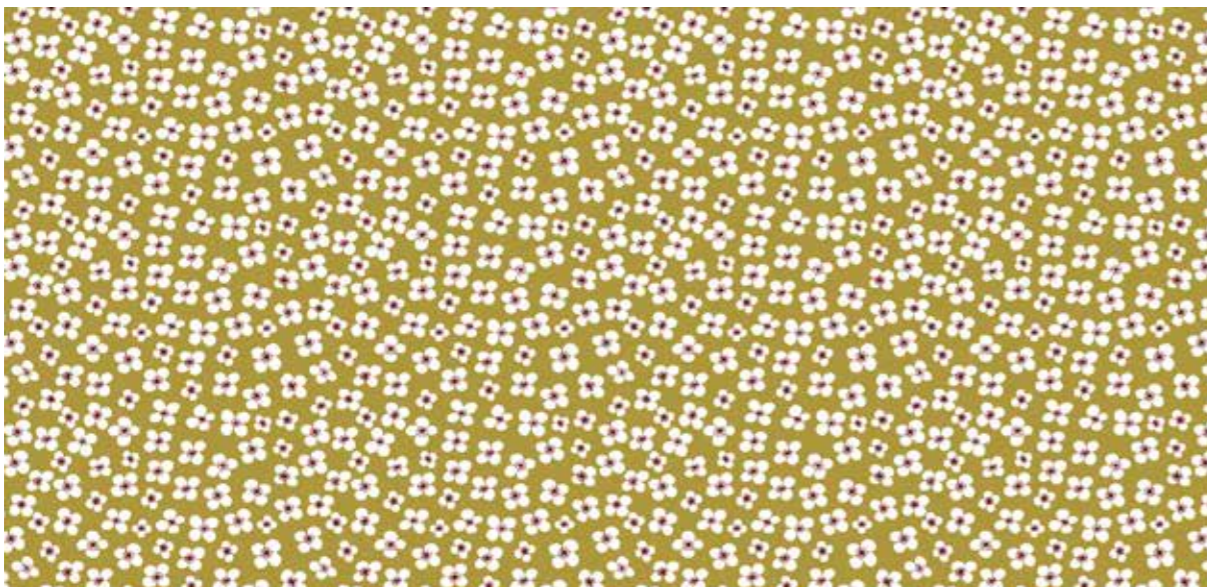

Lotta Köhlhorn is a pattern designer, graphic designer and illustrator. For her, the collaboration with Almedahls was a dream come true. Having grown up with Almedahls' classic tea towels and printed fabrics, her distinctive graphic style and retro-inspired expression naturally connect with the rich design heritage.

This Season's Pattern Classics

KÖRSBÄRSTRÄDGÅRDEN

In the beautiful Körsbärsträdgården, spring and autumn meet in a pattern where blossoms and ripe cherries share the branches while starlings feast on the fruit. The graphic expression is softened by its hand-painted character, with delicate white details adding a sense of movement and harmony. Designed by Marianne Westman in 1959, Körsbärsträdgården was originally printed at the Westman siblings' textile studio in the city of Falun.

BELLE AMIE

The beloved cherry blossoms from Körsbärsträdgården take centre stage in Belle Amie, drifting across the fabric in a soft, graphic pattern. The blossoms first appeared in Marianne Westman's ceramic decor in the 1950s and later in the textile pattern Camellia from 1960. Belle Amie was developed in collaboration with Almedahls in 2011.

JAKTEN

The nostalgic Jakten has been a long-time favourite in the Almedahls collection. Designed by Ulla Bodin in the 1970s, it is one of several imaginative, storytelling patterns inspired by history, alongside designs such as Kombattanerna, Noah's Ark and Ulla min Ulla. Jakten depicts woodland flowers and trees, a graceful maiden on horseback, hunting dogs, and animals and birds hurrying through the lively scene. This year, we are introducing a children's apron and a small-format cushion in Jakten Brown.

BOTANIC GARDEN

Beautiful Botanic Garden was created by Lilo Hörstadius in the 1970s. It's an elegant interpretation of a classic medallion pattern and features an abundance of flowers and foliage that makes it both decorative and timeless. The design is now presented in a warm new colourway with a linen-coloured background, creating a softer look and making it easy to bring a harmonious feel to any interior.
